

“The doors of the warehouse for Runcorn & District Foodbank are now open again, and we are ready to receive your donations! We are grateful to our supporters for withholding giving whilst we sorted out the Christmas backlog and reduced our stock levels, but that period is now over. Please see our website for current specific needs, and thank you for your generosity.”

Wednesday 28th April

10 -12am Joint Men's Fellowship at Wicksten Drive

Speaker: Barrie Davidson

'Silver Jubilee Bridge Update'

Men's Fellowship

We will be taking a coach to the cathedral, as we did last year, for the Diocese of Chester Beacon Celebration on Sunday 20th May at 6.30pm

Worship will be led by Lou Fellingham. Bishop Peter and Bishop Keith will be there with young people from all across the region, some of who will share testimony having just completed a weekend of prayer and pilgrimage. Please sign the sheet at the back of church to book your place and indicate if you're planning to go in your own car.

TEA and TOAST

at All Saints

Saturday 28th April

10.00am - 12 noon

If you've never been before, why not take this opportunity to invite friends and neighbours to come and have a morning out at All Saints Church and enjoy a chat over hot buttered toast and a drink.

Our community outreach project Open Door is back in All Saints Monday - Thursday 10.00am - 2.00pm. The £3 2-course Friendship Lunch will continue in Holy Trinity every Thursday 11.00am - 2.00pm. In order for this to work, we need volunteers at All Saints on a Thursday morning to serve tea and coffee and chat to customers. Please see Joy or Derek if you would be willing to go on a rota to be at All Saints some Thursday mornings to welcome visitors and serve drinks.
